Summary Report

Grand Finale of Smart India Hackathon (Software Edition) – 2025

It has been our immense pleasure to host the Grand Finale of the Smart India Hackathon (Software Edition) – 2025 under the Ministry of Fisheries, Animal Husbandry & Dairying at LNCT, Bhopal.

Over the span of two days, we have witnessed a remarkable convergence of talent and innovation from across the nation. 21 teams from various states came together to showcase their extraordinary technical skills and ideas. Among them are

- 6 teams from Maharashtra,
- 3 teams each from Madhya Pradesh & Karnataka,
- 2 teams each from West Bengal and Tamil Nadu, and
- 1 teams each from Delhi, Jharkhand, Bihar, Daman & Diu, and Chhattisgarh.

Each team brought a unique spark that truly illuminated this grand event.

To all the participants — your creativity, passion, and unwavering determination have left an unforgettable impression on our institute's legacy. You have proven that when innovation meets collaboration, there are no boundaries to what we can achieve.

We have seen ideas transforming into impactful prototypes and presentations. The sincerity and passion demonstrated by every team have been truly inspiring.

This success would not have been possible without the constant guidance and unwavering support of our esteemed management. I express my heartfelt gratitude to Hon'ble Dr. Anupam Chouksey Sir. Your visionary leadership has not only provided a platform for young innovators but has also enhanced LNCT's position as a leading hub of creativity, excellence, and national innovation.

A special note of thanks to Dr. Ashok Rai Sir, Director Administration, for his continuous motivation and strong support. We are also deeply thankful to all Principals, Directors, HODs, and faculty members of the LNCT Group for their relentless encouragement.

Last but definitely not the least — an event of this magnitude does not come together overnight. The efforts began weeks ago, and we are blessed to have a team of enthusiastic and hardworking student volunteers, faculty members, and Hackathon Club members. Your dedication, teamwork, and willingness to go beyond comfort zones have made this event a grand success.

Thank you all once again for your extraordinary contributions.
